- 1 So now,
As I make to leave the scene,
I climb in bed alone,
Lost in thoughts of you;
- 2 Of how
This evening might have been
If only you had shown
To help me see it through;
- 3 Of why
My loneliness began
Just after that last kiss
To haunt me everywhere;
- 4 Or I,
A frail but happy man,
Should crumble into this
The moment you're not there:
- 5 Goodbye,
I will miss you if I can,
But I'm sure to be remiss,
And try hard not to care.
