VERSE 2 (as per Verse 1):

F#m (as Em) billion tiny etc

v1 This will be the last one,
There is really nothing left to fight;

In the diary of a madman
There is just one story left to write:
Y'know I never shirked an answer,
Even when the questions baffled me;
Yet the words which slew the daydreams
Took a terrible infinity,
A peculiar dissymmetry
Which was bound to crush and weaken me
In the end.....

v2 There are ten billion tiny pieces,
Each one surely has to fit somewhere;
Yet you never solved the puzzle,
Never read the clear instructions there:
So long, then, would-be angel,
I never found the peace you most enjoyed,
And it's so hard to play the hero
When lovers call from deep within the void
About the things you know you can't avoid
In the end.....

v3 In the diary of a madman,
There is really nothing left to write.....
