v1 Perhaps there's a chance you might venture a glance
Through your window tonight,
For then I suspect you might pause to reflect on the sight
Of people who pass up and down,
On their way through the streets of the town,
Persuing situations and private relations
In the life that goes on through the night.

v2 A motor bike starts as a young couple parts,
And a drunk starts to shout,
While off in the park you can hear a dog's bark ringing out,
A car is backfiring somewhere;
And I hope that you're listening up there,
While a million small sounds fill the night and the town
With the life that goes on all about.....

Ch1 Oh, the life that goes on, eagles in flight,
Moths in the night, birds on the wing,
Preparing to sing the beautiful song
Of the life that goes on.....

v3 I know it's only that you're feeling lonely,
And let down again,
Alone in your room, with your self laden gloom, and the pain;
I know that you treasure your loss,
And it's not that we don't give a toss,
Ah but why mope around within feet of the sound
Of the life that goes on all the same?.....

Ch2 Oh, the life that goes on, dolphins in schools,
Trout in their pools, and the mammals on land,
All part of the band, that's singing the song
Of the life that goes on.....

Ch3 Oh, the life that goes on, cars that purr by,
Planes that hum in the sky, and the man in the moon,
All humming the tune, so can you tell me why,
As you sit there and cry, that you can't sing along With the life that goes on?.....
