v1 Lawks! And lummy Charlie!
 Who'd have thought that things would go this way?
 Who'd have thought it, eh?

v2 Yikes! And blow me over!
 Who'd have thought we'd come to this fine mess?
 Who would ever guess?

Br1 Our act has never been so untogether
 The two it took to tango couldn't dance,
 The left hand and the right on different planets,
 Arse and elbow lost in games of chance;

Br2 Our front has never been so disunited,
 The backs we tried to cover opened wide,
 The pot was black, the kettle even blacker,
 The fall concluded long before the pride.

v3 Cripes! And well I never!
 Who'd have thought that this was how we'd be?
 It's fair dumbfounded me!
