v1 Sleep on,
This is the world in which you'll never lie awake
In bold imagined terrors that a troubled mind can make,
Of truths that well-worn lies could never break.

v2 Dream on,
This is the world in which you'll never feel the guilt
Of closely guarded secrets, defended to the hilt
By all the subtle alibis you've built.

Br 1 Denial of acceptance, acceptance of denial, Contriteness mixed with cunning, conscience laced with guile,
Logic shaped with cold compelling style;

Br 2 And less by hook than crook, more by foul than fair,
A reality more real than the one already there Protects you from the restless midnight air.

v3 Lie on,
This is the world in which you'll never count the cost,
Of bedsheets never crumpled, pillows never tossed,
Or innocence so firmly never lost.
