- v1 This is the moment, my friend:
Be brave, and try not to grieve.
Who would have thought it, who would believe
That this is how it would end.
- v2 Be strong and steadfast, my friend:
All that we did, well, we did for the best,
And who would have known it, who would have guessed
That this is how it would end.
- v3 This is the moment, my friend:
Take courage, try not to cry:
For who could now question, who would ask why
This is how it would end.
