CODA

106	G	Am	G	Em
110	G	Am	Em

v1 So you were the king,
And he a mere jester,
But he made her laugh
Before he undressed her,
And stole her like thunder away

v2 So you were the peacock,
And he but a rooster,
Yet he showed the plumage
With which he seduced her,
And stole her like thunder away

Br So was it the prowess you thought you displayed
That led to these conquests you never quite made?

Or was it these conquests that lurked in your mind
That led to the love you could never quite find?

v3 So you were the master,
And he just a rookie,
But he had the finesse,
So he got the nookie,
And stole her like thunder away
