-----	----	--------	---	---

v1 So now it seems two lofty hearts
With so much to convey
Have recognised their time has come to this,
A careworn act of listless parts
With nothing more to say,
Beyond a sweet but unfilled parting kiss;

Ch1 And long before this vacant space
Let's tell that you've moved on,
You'll be somewhere down the road;
Yet even if your winding ways
Lead on to somewhere new,
I'll be thinking of you.

v2 Familiar sounds of silent phones
Or doorbells never rung
Reverberate, like echoes in the air
Of simple words just not quite said,
The hopes on which they're hung,
And fondest dreams too often not quite there;

Ch2 And long before this empty place
Shouts witness that you're gone,
You'll be somewhere down the road;
Yet even if your compass
Points you on to someone new,
I'll be thinking of you.
