v1 I've packed up the suitcase, a dozen clean shirts,
Soap and a razor as well,
A bucket and spade,
Just enough for a fortnight in hell.

v2 I've cancelled the papers, diverted the phone, Watered the cactus as well,
Picked up the passport, locked up the door,
Then off for a fortnight in hell.

Br 1 A beach, or a dip in the pool,
A breathtaking vista or view
Is never quite the same without you;

Br 2 Two long weeks away from it all,
My hopes of relaxing are slim
When you're somewhere different, with him.

v3 Now thirty-six snaps are all that I've got,
And most with my thumb in as well,
Plus an uneven tan,
Mementos of a fortnight in hell.
