v1 The top guys boldly came
 And made the buildings fall down from the skies, Applauding twisted rubble where it lies,
 And sneering, with a cool indifferent ease,
 At death and fear,
 And little girls in teddy bear dungarees.

v2 The big men bravely watched
 The patterns of the smoke that filled the air,
 Delighting at the fires still burning there,
 Rejoicing at the spoils of victories,
 Of pain and grief,
 And little girls in teddy bear dungarees.

v3 The heroes took a bow, Triumphantly announced the job was done,
 With every target ticked off one by one,
 While laughing at the fallen enemies,
 The young and old,
 And little girls in teddy bear dungarees.
