v1 Let's sit and dream of stories
Of never-ending past,
Where every love was constant,
And every love stood fast;

ch1 Let's take heart from the glories
That hold our dream alive,
Where every love was faithful,
And every love would thrive;

v2 Let's hanker with affection
For endless yesterdays,
Where every love had kindness
That shaped our kind todays;

ch2 Embrace the bold perfection That keeps the visions real,
That every love delivered What every love could feel;

ch3 And bask in the reflection
Of every glinting past,
Where every love was ceaseless,
And every love would last.
